Volume-led growth trajectory intact; margin sustainability hinges on input cost stability.

AI-generated narrative, not human analyst opinion

POCL operates as a manufacturer and supplier of metal powders and related products. The company serves diverse industrial applications including powder metallurgy, welding electrodes, and chemical processes.

Result Highlights

- Revenue for Q2FY26 stood at Rs. 634.5cr, up 10.8% YoY and 6.4% QoQ.
- PAT for Q2FY26 was Rs. 35.6cr, up 104.6% YoY.
- EBITDA for the quarter was Rs. 55.1cr.
- PBT for Q2FY26 was Rs. 47.9cr.

Outlook & Valuation

POCL is well-positioned to benefit from steady industrial demand for metal powders, supported by a diversified client base and consistent capacity utilization. Growth is expected to be driven by debottlenecking initiatives and increasing penetration in high-margin niche applications. Key risks include volatility in non-ferrous metal prices and competitive intensity from unorganized players, which could pressure realizations. Forward estimates indicate a healthy revenue growth trajectory for FY26E, though margin expansion may moderate. We assign a Not Rated stance pending CMP and valuation data from the source document.
